FACTS

WHAT DOES NISSAN MOTOR ACCEPTANCE COMPANY LLC DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why?

Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?

The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:

- Social Security number and transaction history
- Account balances and payment history
- Purchase history and account transactions

When you are no longer our customer, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.

How?

All financial companies need to share customers’ personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers’ personal information; the reasons Nissan Motor Acceptance Company chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

Nissan Motor Acceptance Company LLC (NMAC) and Nissan-Infiniti LT LLC (NILT), for whom NMAC acts as servicer.

What we do

How does Nissan Motor Acceptance Company protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does Nissan Motor Acceptance Company collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you
- apply for financing or apply for a lease
- pay your bills or give us your contact information
- pay us by check

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can’t I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only
- sharing for affiliates’ everyday business purposes — information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See below for more on your rights under state law.

Definitions

Affiliates

Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.
- Our affiliates may include companies with a Nissan, INFINITI or Mitsubishi name. Dealers are not affiliates.

Nonaffiliates

Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.
- Nissan Motor Acceptance Company does not share with non-affiliates so they can market to you.

Joint marketing

A formal agreement between nonaffiliated financial companies that together market financial products or services to you. Our joint marketing partners include
- Dealers
- Other financial institutions

Other important information

In California, NMAC does not share with dealers or other financial institutions for joint marketing, but does share with dealers so we can offer you incentives, discounts or bonus programs.
